6th Annual Fall Festival October 21, 2018, 12-4, pm (Rain or Shine)

At Historic Traphagen, 131 Germonds Road adjacent to Germonds Park, West Nyack
Listed on the State and National Registers of Historic Places

Join the Revolution and Step Back in Time

Join the Revolution, the glorious cause! See how militia men and camp followers of the American Revolutionary War lived in the 1770's. Heard's Brigade of the New Jersey Militia is seeking visitors to cheer on our encampment of 18th century tents, open-fire pit cooking, militia drills, musket firing and other living history demonstrations! Maybe we will come upon the British and those Loyalists!

- ▶ Horse Drawn Hayride (12:30-3:30 pm)
- ▶ Pumpkin Picking, Decorating and Painting
- ▶ Lavram the Great—Colonial Conjuror Magic Show
- ▶ Northern River Colonial Dancers, Historic Dance Troupe. English country dances from the late 17th through early 19th centuries
- ▶ Sheep Shearing by Fred Depaul. Demos on the history of sheep shearing
- ▶ Children's Games, Crafts and Storytime by The Hausner Family. Hear the Witch of West Nyack Story.
- ▶ Lace Making Demonstration by Mayra Petretti—Metropolitan Chapter IOLI
